

Herman N. Clingerman

Herman Nelson Clingerman, 77, Warfordsburg, died Monday, January 2, 1989 at the Fulton County Medical Center.

Born in Purcell, Bedford County, he was the son of the late William Henry and Mary Ellen Smith Clingerman.

His wife, Myrtle Evelyn Booth Clingerman, died in 1968.

He was retired as road master for Bethel Township and had served as Fulton County Fire Warden for 20 years.

He was a member of the Bethel Christian Church in Clearville, PA.

He is survived by one daughter, Donna Jean Lynch of Warfordsburg, with whom he resided; two brothers: William Delbert Clingerman and Kelly Leo Clingerman, both of Warfordsburg; one granddaughter and two grandsons.

Services were held at 2:00 p.m. Thursday, January 5 at the Needmore Bible Church. The Rev. Douglas Poffenberger officiated. Burial was made in the Warfordsburg Presbyterian Cemetery.

The Grove Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Memorial donations may be made to the Fulton County Home Nursing Agency, McConnellsburg, PA or the Fulton County Medical Center, McConnellsburg, PA, 17233.