

B: 30 MARCH 1928

Lynn D. DeShong

Lynn Duffy DeShong, 48, Lurgan, Pa., died at the Chambersburg Hospital Tuesday afternoon, February 15, 1977.

Born in Harrisonville, he was the son of the late William Harrison and Celia Mellott DeShong.

He was of the Protestant faith. He was a Navy veteran and was employed as a tow motor operator at Letterkenny (Ordnance Depot).

He is survived by a son, Raymond Deshong, St. Thomas; one daughter, Mrs. Robin Strode, St. Thomas; two brothers: Clifford DeShong, Harrisonville; and Russell DeShong, Newfield, N.J.; and three sisters: Mrs. Edna Cooper of Roxbury; Mrs. Reda Voss of Greencastle; and Mrs. Goldie Truax of Harrisonville.

Services were held Friday, February 18, from the Sideling Hill Christian Church near Needmore, with the Rev. Leonard Wright officiating.

Burial was made in the church cemetery with military graveside rites by the Fulton Honor Guard.

DeShong, Lynn D.

Sideling Hill
Christian