

Catherine Hull Lowe

Towson, MD, ~~81~~ 91

Catherine Hull Lowe, 91, died Wednesday, January 14, 1998 at the Mano Care Nursing Home of Towson, MD.

Born July 12, 1907 in McConnellsburg, she was the daughter of the late William Hull (Racket Store) and Ella Knauff Hull.

Her husband, David Lowe, preceded her in death in 1979.

She was of the Protestant faith.

She graduated from Hood College and taught piano lessons in McConnellsburg.

In 1931, she married David Yohn Lowe, the son of William J. Lowe, former minister of St. Paul's United Church of Christ in McConnellsburg. They moved to Baltimore, he was employed by the B&O Railroad and director of many church choirs in Roland Park, Baltimore.

They raised cocker spaniels and competed in many dog shows in the eastern United States and also the Westminster Kennel Club Dog Show in New Year City yearly.

Burial was made in Union Cemetery.