The death of Adam Oyler occurred on Sunday last at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Snyder at Knobsville, where the deceased had made his home for the past two years. He was born in Todd township near the Bethlehem church, October 10, 1846 and was the son of the late Henry Oyler, and at the time of his death was aged 76 years, 5 months and 8 days. His wife preceded him in death about eight years ago. He had been suffering for about a year with heart trouble but was only bedfast for about two weeks prior to his death. He is survived by two sisters; Catharine of Albany, Illinois and Elizabeth of Bethlehem, Pa., and one brother George. While the deceased spent most of his life in Fulton county yet he was an extensive traveler and had visited in all parts of the United States. Funeral services were held from his late home on Tuesday afternoon at the Knobsville M. E. church with interment in the Knobsville cemetery. The services were conducted by Rev. William J. Lowe of the Federated church of McConnellsburg.
