

Oran R. Ulsh

Hustontown, 78

Oran Richard Ulsh, 78, Hustontown, died Thursday, November 8, 2007, at Fulton County Medical Center.

Born in Orbisonia July 6, 1929, he was the son of the late William Harden and Marie Orleen (Cook) Ulsh.

He was the widow of Martha (King) Ulsh, who passed away December 8, 2001, and they were married July 1950.

He attended Wintergreen School in Hustontown and was a member of Pennsylvania Farmer's Association.

He was a retired logger and farmer and in his early years he worked for the Mount Union Brickyard and for Heinz in Chambersburg. He enjoyed auto races, baseball, deer hunting, spotlighting for deer and loved visits from friends and family.

He is survived by sons: R. Leon Ulsh, McConnellsburg; M. Troy Ulsh, Hustontown; Delmar O. Ulsh, Hustontown; Stuart L. Ulsh, McConnellsburg; daughters: Leona D. Baker, Hustontown; Karen E. Flasher, Three Springs, and Crystal L. McQuait, McConnellsburg; sisters: Winifred DeShong, McConnellsburg, and Izetta Wright, St. Thomas; 11 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by a son, Dennis A. Ulsh; brothers: Gilbert and Lorenan Ulsh and sisters: Arminda Strait and Goldie Ulsh.

Funeral services were held at Howard L. Sipes Funeral Home Inc., Harrisonville, at 11:00 a.m., Monday, November 12. Rev. Duane Williams officiated. Burial was made in Center United Methodist Cemetery, Waterfall.

Ulsh, Oran

Center