

Royce T. Zimmerman

Royce T. Zimmerman, 74, McConnellsburg, died Sunday, June 13, 1993 at the Fulton County Medical Center.

Born in Mankato, KS, he was the son of the late Jacob Scott and Anna Ethel Barnhart Zimmerman.

He was a self-employed farmer. He was also employed with PennDOT.

He was a member of Needmore Bible Church in Needmore.

He was a member of the Gold Wing Road Riders Chapter C of Chambersburg.

Surviving are his wife, Kathleen J. Mellott Zimmerman; one daughter, Anna Maye Sigel of Warfordsburg; one son, Ronnie R. Zimmerman of Hancock; three sisters: Lena Lindsay of Hancock; Freda Schriever of Berkeley Springs and Faye Z. May of Harrisburg; one brother, Hayes Zimmerman of Harrisburg; four grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by one sister, May McCray.

Services were held at 1:00 p.m. Wednesday, June 16 at the Needmore Bible Church. The Rev. Douglas Poffenberger, Rev. Roger Truax, Rev. Floyd Truax and Dr. Royce Thomason officiated. Burial was made in Cedar Grove Cemetery in Dott, PA.

The Grove Funeral Home, Hancock, was in charge of arrangements.

Memorial donations may be made to the Rodney McCray Missionary Fund, c/o Needmore Bible Church, Needmore, PA 17238.

Zimmerman, Royce T.

Cedar Grove